

OPEN POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

CLINICAL SUPERVISOR:

Asian Pacific Community Counseling (APCC), an established community-based nonprofit since 1977, seeks a Clinical Supervisor for its Transcultural Wellness Center, a mental health clinic expansion to serve primarily Asian and Pacific Islanders in Sacramento County. The Clinical Supervisor will work as a member of the agency's management team and be responsible for training and clinical supervision of licensed and unlicensed direct service staff and student trainees within multidisciplinary service teams. This position is further responsible for managing clinical service units and providing direct services, including outreach and wellness/recovery services, resource development and service coordination, mental health services and after-hours coverage/crisis intervention for the Transcultural Wellness Center (TWC). Qualified applicants must have a Master's Degree in Social Work or Marriage and Family Therapy, or doctorate in Clinical Psychology, and be licensed as a mental health professional in the State of California by the Board of Behavioral Sciences. Additional minimum qualifications include a National Provider Identifier (NPI), two years post-licensure experience providing direct mental health services, one year experience supervising direct service staff, valid California Driver's license and automobile liability insurance, basic computer skills, and willingness to work in the field and share after-hours and weekend on-call responsibilities. Experience treating children and families from diverse language and cultural backgrounds is preferred. Candidates must be able to demonstrate their ability to work in an environment that is client-oriented, strength-based and values diversity. Persons with bilingual/bicultural skills are encouraged to apply. APCC offers a competitive salary and comprehensive benefits package. Send cover letter, resume and verification of license to: APCC, 5330 Power Inn Road, Suite A, Sacramento, CA 95820, Attn: Human Resources Department. Review of applications will begin on April 9, 2007, and continue until the position is filled. APCC is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.
